Man Pleads in Shooting Death of Brother in Compton

A 45-year-old man accused of fatally shooting his brother pleaded no contest today, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Dion Landry of Carson pleaded no contest to a single felony count of voluntary manslaughter in case TA135861. The defendant also admitted a special allegation of personally and intentionally discharging a handgun.

Landry is scheduled to be sentenced March 23 in Department D of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Compton Branch. He is expected to be sentenced to 15 years in state prison.

Deputy District Attorney Lee Orquiola, who prosecuted the case, said on Nov. 16, 2014, Landry got into an argument with his younger brother, Davion Branch, 25, at their mother's Compton home.

At some point, Landry left the house, but returned with a gun, the prosecutor said. The defendant then reportedly confronted his brother in the backyard and shot him to death.

Soon after the shooting, police were called and Landry was arrested in connection with the killing.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.
